

WEATHER for Kentucky
Thursday fair and cooler.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

A sea-waterseep at Juneau, Alaska, flooded and ruined three gold mines.

Now the fresh rumor comes that Greece is about to enter on the side of the allies.

Speaker Clark yesterday threw the weight of his opposition against the President's selected draft army plan.

The Court of Appeals has ruled that countles must live within their incomes.

In the fighting on the Russian front, Germans are using a new kind of bullets made of glass.

Turkey has officially notified us that she has broken off relations. All right, we can stand it if she can.

Madame Sarah Bernhardt, who underwent an operation in New York, last week, is critically ill, and the great actress is apparently nearing the end of her brilliant career.

Nevada will be the first state to fill her quota of recruits for the regular army. The State is called on to supply 162 men and has furnished 152 since April 1.

The United States will lend Great Britain $200,000,000 to-day, from the recent bond issue, for pocket change during a temporary financial embarrassment.

The Kaiser wired Crown Prince Rupprecht congratulating him on holding his line and added "I send my thanks and God will help further." As usual, he mentions God first and then Gott.

The government in the supreme court Monday won its suit against the Southern Pacific railroad to regain nearly 2,000,000 acres of land in Washington and Oregon, worth $30,000,000.

Elihu Root has been requested to head the commission the United States will send to Russia. Others mentioned for places on the commission are Henry Morgenthau, Oscar Straus and Edward N. Hurley.

Instead of calling another session of the Legislature to deal with military matters, Gov. Stanley has issued a proclamation asking all preachers to discuss the matter in their sermons next Sunday. Wise conclusion and a much cheaper method.

The Court of Appeals, in an opinion by Judge Thomas, held valid an ordinance of the city of Newport prohibiting the sale of fresh meats at retail from wagons, affirming the Campbell Circuit Court in the case of John Hahn against the city of Newport.

While standing at the rear of the governor's mansion Sunday, Gov. Stanley's car "started itself," and took a plunge over the embankment back of the capitol. The car dropped 100 feet astride a telephone pole and was demolished. How the car started is not known, but it is believed that it was given its start by a gust of wind.

An Italian paper publishes an unconfirmed story that a recent conference the Hohenzollern family urged the Kaiser to abdicate like the Czar of Russia, as a means of restoring peace. The German monarch is reported to have turned pale and after observing that the general opinion was against him, left the room muttering: "We shall see."

City Attorney Pendleton Beekley and his assistant, Stuart Chevalier, are in Washington to argue the segregation ordinance, passed some time ago by the Louisville General Council, before the Supreme Court. The ordinance provides for the separation of whites and blacks in city blocks, and is the first measure of its kind that ever reached the Supreme Court. The question to be decided by that court is whether or not that ordinance is constitutional under the fourteenth amendment to the constitution.

LEGISLATURE
PLAYS LIMIT

Expired Yesterday, The Last Day It Could Draw Per Diem.

NOW GO HOME QUICK

And Plant A Crop, You Bunch of Conscienceless Time Killers.

Frankfort, Ky., April 25.—Final passage of the Spurrier Bill, providing for a tax of 10 cents the barrel on malt liquor by the Senate and House yesterday cleared the way for early sine die adjournment of the extra session of the Kentucky Legislature today.

Rapid progress was made, as evidenced by the fact that both branches of the General Assembly agreed upon all provisions of the Spurrier Distilled Liquor Bill, the Malt Liquor Bill, the McGlone Oil Bill, the Hutchcraft Corporation Tax Bill and the Dnnan Bill, fixing January 1 as the date upon which taxes become delinquent. The liquor, oil and corporation taxes will yield more than $1,000,000 a year, it is estimated.

TO TICKLE
THE SOIL

Joe Moseley, Jr., Home From Lexington to Plant a Crop.

Joe Moseley, Jr., is home from Lexington where he has been attending the agricultural department of the State University. With the outbreak of hostilities, those in charge of the University gave all who desired to join the army their leave of absence and guaranteed them their credits for the year. It is recognized that the farmer is as much a patriot as the soldier is, so the students of agriculture have been given permission to return home and help feed the country, and Joe says he will show some folks in this neighborhood how the farming act is done. Yesterday he was the center of attraction wherever he went, for he is one of the most popular boys in town and everybody was glad to see him.

STATE OF WAR RESOLUTION.

The text of the resolution follows: "Whereas, the Imperial German government has committed repeated acts of war against the government and the people of the United States of America therefore be it: "Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that the state of war between the United States and the Imperial German government which has thus been thrust upon the United States is hereby formally declared; and that the President be and he is hereby authorized and directed to employ the entire naval and military forces of the United States and the resources of the government to carry on war against the Imperial German government; and to bring the conflict to a successful termination all of the resources of the country are hereby pledged by the Congress of the United States."

Off For the Front.

Frankfort, Ky., April 25.—Company L, Second Regiment, which was mustered into the federal service Monday by Captain Gibson and Captain Turnbull, will leave Tuesday for a destination out of Kentucky. It is reported here that it will have a temporary station in Virginia.

The United States last year used 3,658,607 tons of sugar, of which 1,666,548 came from Cuba, the rest from our own provinces.

PLANS FOR FOOD CONTROL

Secretary Houston Favors Guaranteeing Minimum Prices to Farmers.

Washington, April 23.—Congress again began consideration of the food problem today in a public hearing before the senate agriculture committee when Secretary Houston set forth the administration food control program.

At the same time the federal trade commission asked the state governors to send representatives to Washington April 30 for a conference.

Before appearing before the senate committee Secretary Houston put his plans before the heads of five of the country's big farmers organizations and received assurances of support.

As part of the government's plans the department of labor announced it had undertaken the mobilizations of a million boys as active farm workers this summer.

Secretary Houston told the senate aside from wheat and potatoes there is no indicated impending shortage in foods.

He suggested that the farmers' fear of loss through extraordinary large crops might be removed by guaranteeing minimum prices.

The battle of Arras was renewed with great vigor by the British Monday and several villages were taken and 1200 prisoners captured.

ARMY BILL
TO PASS

General Debate Continues, However House May Vote Thursday.

Washington, April 25.—Passage of the war army bill by the end of the week is forecast.

General debate on the measure continues in both houses. A vote may be reached in the House Thursday and in the Senate by Saturday at the latest.

Attention is focused mainly on the House where opposition to the administration's plans for raising an army by selective draft is strongest. Despite this, however, Administration leaders are confident of success.

In the Senate passage of the bill virtually without modification is expected.

SPARKS ON ROOF

Start an Incipient Blaze on Alumnae Avenue.

Early yesterday morning there was considerable excitement on Alumnae Avenue, caused by a small blaze at the home of Mr. Jas. B. Allensworth. For some time the chimney had been emitting sparks, but no one thought there was any danger of fire. Sparks ignited the roof however, and everybody turned out to fight fire. An alarm was turned in, but before the department arrived the fire had been extinguished by Robt. Allensworth and Robt. Neblett, who reached the roof by an attic window and put out the flames by the "bucket brigade" method.

When you want fire, tornado, life or bond insurance in the Oldest Strongest Companies see H. D. WALLACE, office up stairs, over Anderson-Fowler Drug Store, Corner Ninth and Main.

Cash For J. Bull.

Great Britain will receive the first proceeds, to an amount as yet undetermined, of the $5,000,000,000 bond issue soon to be offered to the public. The amount of the British loan, it was stated authoritatively, and other details probably will be announced by Secretary McAdoo within a few days.

CLEAN-UP
NEXT WEEK

Annual Campaign For Removing Dirt and Rubbish.

CIVIL LEAGUE HELPERS

City Will Furnish Wagons To Do The Hauling Free.

The city officials and the ladies of the Civic League, acting in concert, will start next week the annual Clean-up Campaign and there will be an organized and systematic campaign against dirt and rubbish. Several thousand handbills have been distributed, giving a detailed schedule of the routes and the days upon which rubbish will be gathered up. The city will furnish enough wagons to handle the hauling, and citizens are urged to have rubbish piled where the wagons can get to it, or it will not be taken away free of cost. In other words it must be piled in the street, or in some place that a wagon can get to it without trouble. For the schedule by streets see display advertisement in to-day's paper.

RECRUITING

For the Navy Has Been Located at Bowling Green.

Bowling Green, Ky., April 24.—The sub-station for Southern Kentucky for the recruiting of men for the navy has been placed at Bowling Green, Ky. Rooms in the Chamber of Commerce building have been placed at the disposal of the officers in charge.

Kentucky is falling behind in her share of the recruits for the navy, and the officer in charge, Chief C. T. Jordan, is anxious that the number allotted to Kentucky, which is 800 men, will be reached by May 20.

Boys 16 to 34 years of age are eligible for examination for the navy. All boys under the age of 18 years should not fail to bring along their consent papers duly signed by parents or guardians, allowing them to join the navy, and in this way saving much time. If these papers are not brought with the applicant, he will have to return and have same filled out. A letter addressed to the Naval Recruiting Station, Bowling Green, Ky., will get you the necessary consent papers to have filled in and bring along with you.

All applicants from Hopkinsville should report to the Bowling Green office for enlistment. The navy offers young men exceptional advantages for advancement and promotion. It is a fine physical training for a boy and fits him for much service in after years for home and for country.

AMERICAN FLYER
MEETS HIS DEATH

Killed in Aerial Combat During Offensive on The French Front.

Paris, April 24.—Corporal Ronald Hoskier, of South Orange, N. J., one of the stars of the American flying corps, has been killed in an aerial combat in the offensive that is now in progress.

Willing To Be Taxed.

Independent tobacco manufacturers of the country, in a conference agreed to accept without a contest 50 per cent increases on smoking, chewing, and cigarette tobaccos for war taxes, stating that this would yield $17,000,000 additional revenue.

MUTILATION
SUIT ENDS

$750 and Costs Accepted By Victim From Choate Who Was Convicted.

Paducah, Ky., April 25.—Settlement of the $50,000 suit brought by Henry Campbell against B. E. Choate, both of Graves county, for maltreatment on July 9, 1916, near Wingo, Ky., was effected before Judge Walter Evans in United States district court here Monday morning. The case was compromised for $750 and costs.

The compromise ended another chapter in an affair that stirred Graves county last year. Choate went to Campbell's home and at the point of a gun made him get in his buggy and ride to a secluded spot where Choate performed a hideous operation upon Campbell because Choate suspected relations with Mrs. Choate. Campbell came near dying from the operation, but physicians succeeded in pulling him through. Both he and Choate were in Paducah this morning and about 70 witnesses that had been summoned to testify in the case. The settlement was reached directly after the case was called for trial.

Choate, who was recently tried in the Graves circuit court for the crime and was given a two years and three months sentence in the penitentiary is out on bond awaiting the result of an appeal. The settlement of the case this morning came as a great surprise. Choate plead justification for his act.

SPEAKER CLARK
OPPOSES DRAFT

Many Petitions Asking Congress to Adopt Administration Plan.

Washington, April 25.—Speaker Clark opposed the selective draft and predicted it never would pass Congress today in receiving a delegation from the National Security League. Several hundred petitions bearing a million names, asking Congress to adopt the Administration plan, were laid before the Speaker. "Conscription never will pass, in my opinion," he said. "I am for letting the flower and youth of this country volunteer before we fasten the disgrace of a draft upon them. The War Department is jumping around trying to bulldoze people into passing this bill, and I do not think they are going to do it."

MARRIAGES.

Hayden-Dalton.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Dalton announce the engagement of their daughter Margaret to Mr. Emmett Hayden.

The wedding will take place in June.

Girl, 16, Weds Again.

Enory Broy, 21 years old, a laborer, and Mrs. Mary Slater, 16 years old, both of Utica, Ind., Monday were married in Jeffersonville. The bride was divorced March 3 from William Weber, to whom she was married in Jeffersonville March 23, 1916. In making her application Mrs. Slater said she was born in Utica, July 12, 1900. Weber and his wife lived together seven months. One of the charges against Weber was that he would bite his wife on the fingers. Judge James W. Fortune asked her if she desired her maiden name restored, and she replied she wanted nothing but a divorce.

PEMBROKE WET.

In the Prohibition election at Pembroke yesterday, the wets won by 16 votes in a hotly contested election.

ADVANCE
SLOWS UP

Counter Attacks of Germans Cause Disorder At Arras.

JERUSALEM BATTLEFIELD

French Capture Four Howitzers To Use On Enemy.

There was some diminution of the intensity of fighting between the British and German armies Tuesday, although some battles of great fierceness were continued at several points.

In these, according to British communications, the advantage rests with Field Marshal Haig's forces.

In southeast Arras the British made progress in the straightening out a sharp salient.

Northeast of Arras in the Gavrelle sector of the Germans threw strong counter attacks against the British, which fell back in disorder when raked with military fire.

Since Monday more than 2,000 Germans from numerous divisions have been counted by the British. Many others are waiting to be transferred to the rear.

Among the booty captured by the French in the recent heavy engagement were four of the famous German 105 millimeter Howitzers. These have been brought into the French lines and doubtless will be used against their former owners.

British flyers are taking advantage of the beautiful spring weather. Fifteen German aircraft were shot down Tuesday-four others were last seen crashing earthward completely out of control. Only two British machines are missing.

The Turks apparently propose to make a stand at Palestine against the further advance of the British toward Jerusalem.

SPRINKLERS COMING

Regular Commissioners Meeting Held Last Tuesday.

The days are growing longer and hotter and drier and the dust rivals the fogs of London. South Main and South Virginia streets are almost unbearable on account of dust. But everybody rejoices, the Commissioners say that the sprinklers are on the way and are expected any moment. Everything is being done that can be done and soon dust will be a thing of the past.

The Commissioners held their regular meeting Tuesday and appointed the following election officers for the school trustees' election, to be held the first Saturday in May:

Gns Brenthitt and A. L. Berry, judges; J. D. Higgins, clerk, and E. G. Callis, sheriff.

The colored officers will be A. C. Breit and George Leavelle, judges; Phil H. Brown, clerk, and Walter Robinson, sheriff.

TRIGG COUNTY SOLDIER.

The body of Terry Miller, of Trigg county, passed through the city Monday afternoon, enroute to Cadiz. He was a son of Walter Miller, of Cadiz, and was a soldier of the Sixth Illinois Infantry, regular army, and died at Springfield, Saturday. The casket was wrapped in the Stars and Stripes. Miller was about 25 years old.

DEATH OF MRS. BRAME.

Mrs. Iva May Brame died at Lafayette Monday evening. The deceased was 36 years old. Interment took place Wednesday.

Tetanus Causes Death.

Errett Ashby, of Webster county, died at the Western State Hospital Tuesday of tetanus, aged 25 years. The body was shipped to Seabee.

OPIUM AND OLIVIA

By DOROTHY DOUGLAS.

As young Doctor Rylance stepped swiftly out of his office, a shining hauberk caught his eye with its glister in the bright morning sunshine. He stepped and picked it up.

Even to his eyes, ignorant as to the price of feminine adornment, the locket fairly screamed aloud its worth from the costly mass of jewels in the gold frame.

There was a mysterious catch that gave the doctor no little amusement and trouble before he could open the tightly closed locket. When his fingers discovered the secret and the locket flew open his eyes expanded, then contracted, in professional scrutiny.

The locket was filled with tiny opium pills!

"Dope!" muttered the doctor. Involuntarily he sighed. There was so much wreckage floating about the world. Here was startling evidence of human tragedy. Some wretched woman was no doubt suffering the tortures of the condemned because she had lost her opium.

His inner conviction was that the woman, whoever she might be, would never claim the locket for fear her ghostly skeleton should become public property.

Skeptical though he was as to results, he inserted a well-worded advertisement in the daily papers.

When Olivia Weston found the advertisement she had been seeking, her eyes lighted in triumph until they twinkled with excitement.

She arose and took up the telephone. The number she called was the one given in the advertisement.

Doctor Rylance was in his office.
When he took up the telephone receiver a little snatch of song was wafted along the wire. After that delightful sound Olivia's voice reached him.

"I am most anxious about my locket," she said.

"I am sorry I opened it," Rylance said to her. "But as you may know, a man's curiosity is a thing quite beyond his power to control." He appreciated the little laugh that bounded along the wires. "When can you call for the locket?" He was conscious of keen desire to study this opium fiend at close range.

"I will call this afternoon," Olivia said eagerly.

The growing tone in her voice caused the doctor to sigh as he hung up the receiver. It was evident that she was joyous over the prospect of regaining her lost property.

When the next little nurse who acted as office attendant ushered in Olivia it was nearing the twilight hour.
The doctor was forced swiftly to his feet. Having expected human wreckage in one of its most terrifying forms, the sight of Olivia was frightfully un-setting.

"It was silly of me to lose my precious locket," she said. "I don't know how it happened. It is usually so secure." She gazed calmly, if admiringly, at Rylance.

"You—you don't look like an opium fiend," was his startled comment.

Olivia laughed gleefully.

"Neither am I," she told him. "I am only a poor, harmless writer whose brain has been squeezed dry of every plot that it ever possessed. I hadn't written a story for ten whole days." She turned tragic eyes full upon Doctor Rylance without heeding the effect on his masculine senses. "I deliberately lost my locket—just to see who would find it and—"

"But what thieves are you associated with from whom you obtain opium?" he questioned. "It's a crime,
you know."

"My brother," said Olivia loftily with flaming cheeks, "is a chemist."

"And a fool if he gives you opium to make plots for stories out of."

"He—he didn't give it to me. I knew where it was kept." She glanced up swiftly in defense of her brother.

"He thinks me all kinds of a foolish person because of the things I do to get atmosphere for stories."

Doctor Rylance was looking at her in a way entirely uncalculated for, considering the newness of the acquaintance Olivia feared, from the manner in which her heart had taken to bending, that something other than a short story was going to be the outcome of her act. Never had it acted in this unusual way in the search for material.

"You may be silly," Rylance finally voiced some of the thoughts running riot in his brain during that long meeting with Olivia's eyes, "but you are also—many other things—of much nicer order." He rejoiced at the swift rush of color into Olivia's cheeks. "I don't get much time to read the magazines, but I suppose they occasionally take a story of love at first sight. If you want any facts or suggestions regarding the emotions of a man who has fallen suddenly, unexpectedly and completely in love at first sight—just you come to me—will you?" There was a hint of pleading below the laughter in the doctor's voice.

"My imagination is rather good," Olivia told him, "so I think it will not be difficult to weave some kind of story out of this situation."

The doctor, smiling knowingly and Olivia made good her escape. It would be rather curious, even in a story, should both the hero and heroine capitulate to love at the first paragraph.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hisson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui
And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition,
so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me,
and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

HAD HIS DOUBTS.

The words had been pronounced which made the blushing debutante the wife of a young man of the type described by a blackfaced comedian as having all of his future behind him.
The couple departed to make their home in a distant city.

"Now, don't forget to mention the bride's going-away dress," said the proud mother to a society reporter.

"I won't. Leave that to me."
"Yes, don't forget to mention her going-away dress," said the bride's dubious father, "for the Lord only knows what she'll come back in."

Had Quite Enough.

His offer of marriage had been declined without thanks.

"And," he said, "am I to have no assurance whatever?"

"Not from me," replied the unfair
one.

"May I ask why not?" he queried.

"It isn't necessary," she replied, "because you have more assurance now than would suffice for a dozen men."

And seeing the case was hopeless,
he proceeded to fade away.

NEEDED THE MONEY

The Bachelor—Are these jokes true about a woman's pocket being so hard to find?

The Benedict (whose wife has money)—Sure thing. I spent an hour last night trying to find my wife's pocket. Can you lend me a ten-spot, old man?

Work To Do.

Thrice welcome to the genial sun,
Whose face has long been hid.
Perhaps he'll dry the slippy streets,
So auto cars won't skid.

Wanted to Know.

"I'll be down in a minute," called
Mrs. Dubwaite from her dressing room.

"Just a moment, dear," answered Mr.
Dubwaite.

"Well?"

"Do you mean the minute that is now being ticked off by the clocks and watches, or a minute that will begin about three-quarters of an hour from now?"

Hopeless Case.

"Are the Gadder girls still doing settlement work?"

"They dropped that long ago."

"They were not discouraged, I hope?"

"Very much so. They tried to interest a family of poor Italians in photography, and when Tony told them he would rather have a bushel of potatoes, they gave it up in disgust."

Point of View.

Meeker—This paper says a man should tell his wife daily that he loves her. What do you think of that?

Enpeck—Huh! I don't think a newspaper ought to encourage lying.

Unnecessary.

Hazel—So you were at the Smythe-
Jones wedding, were you?

Almee—Yes.

Hazel—Who gave the bride away?

Almee—No one. She married for money.

FROM HIS PA'S SIDE

"She doesn't know where the baby gets its bad temper."

"That's strange. Most young mothers can place that sort of responsibility in a jiffy."

Really Worth While.

The wireless telegraph is fine,
Let all the poets harp it;
But wouldn't it be just divine
To have a beatless carpet?

His Only Chance.

"A man can't help his personal appearance," said the moralizer. "He isn't permitted to select his eyes or his hair."

"No," replied the demoralizer, "but in after years he can go to a dentist and pick his own teeth."

"Baby Dolls."

There used to be a time when men preferred the doll type of woman, but that period has passed, or, rather, there are so few men with these preferences that they are not much considered. The wife of today must have mentally as well as looks if she is to hold her husband, and the average man, realizing this, looks for a fair amount of brains in the woman he selects to be his wife. Of course, there will always be husbands who prefer to have all the brains in the matrimonial partnership, who look upon their wives as playthings, to be excluded from all the real interests and real issues of life. Mental attraction plays as big a part as physical attraction in the selection of a mate. How can a man develop his future self at the head of the domestic helm there stands a woman who cannot meet him on equal mental grounds, who cannot understand and appreciate the ideals he expresses?—Exchange.

Neither Did We.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

"Fourth of July" in March.

Fireworks on Independence day are denied the children and grown folks of Alaska for the simple reason that the July nights are almost as light as the days and it does not pay to attempt pyrotechnic displays if there is no darkness to show them off by contrast. Consequently it has become the custom in many Alaskan cities, including Fairbanks, to hold a "Fourth of July" celebration on March 4, when the nights are still very long. Then there is abundant opportunity for displaying fireworks of every variety.

Cost of a Cough.

A patient German statistician has calculated that a patient who coughs once every quarter of an hour for ten hours expends energy equivalent to two hundred and fifty units of heat, which may be translated as equivalent to the nourishment contained in three eggs or two glasses of milk. In normal respiration the air is expelled from the chest at the rate of four feet per second, whereas in violent coughing it may attain a velocity of three hundred feet. This waste of energy is especially important, because it occurs, for the most part, in persons whose assimilative functions are already working under difficulties; consequently the ingestion of the corresponding quantity of nourishment by no means compensates for the exertion. It follows that persistent cough is per se a cause of emaciation, though there are many other factors which tend in the same direction; hence the desirability of restraining cough within safe limits, especially when it is due to irritative reflexes, such as are excited by laryngitis and pharyngitis.—From the Medical Critic and Globe.

Marriage.

George Ade said of it, "You'll regret it if you do and you'll regret it if you don't." Previously Socrates had said, somewhat to wit, "Young man, whether you do or not, you'll be sorry for it." The conservative nature is shy of it, unwilling to take a chance. The element of chance in it is what beguiles others. It has, however, wholly admirable aspects. The very useful and excellent sentiment of home is perhaps its best point. Summing up briefly the whole history of human experience, we feel moved to say of marriage, "It is well. Let it continue." (It continues.)

SPRAINS AND STRAINS RELIEVED

Sloan's Liniment quickly takes the pain out of strains, sprains, bruises and all muscle soreness. A clean, clear liquid easily applied, it quickly penetrates without rubbing. Sloan's Liniment does not stain the skin or clog the pores like musky plasters or ointments. For chronic rheumatic aches and pains, neuralgia, gout and lumbago have this well-known remedy handy. For the pains of gripple and following strenuous work, it gives quick relief. At all druggists, 25c.—Advertisement.

THE KENTUCKIAN FOR 1917

EVER since the year 1868, the HOPKINSVILLE KENTUCKIAN has been published under one name or another. In 1879 the present name was given and the present management took charge of the paper, which is now in its 39th volume. For almost 40 years it has been a faithful exponent of the growth and development of the city and county. It has written in its files a history of the county covering that long period. It has recorded the birth of three generations in some instances. It has seen the small town develop into a prosperous city with its people ever looking forward to greater things.

During all these years it has had a loyal and constant patronage from the best people of the county. It has many subscribers whose names have not been off its subscription lists in 39 years. In many other families' sons have taken their father's places. We would be ungrateful not to appreciate support like this, but we have never come to the reading public with a stronger appeal for patronage than this year. Conditions have greatly changed and paper stock is three times as high as a year ago.

Many newspapers have advanced rates but in order that the circulation may not be lessened by a higher price the KENTUCKIAN will still be sent for $2.00 a year, the old price. It will be necessary though to adhere rigidly to the cash system, since more than $1.00 must be paid in advance for the paper upon which we print 156 papers and the cost of printing leaves but little profit out of the second dollar. We are asking our old subscribers to stand by us in this crisis by renewing promptly.

All papers not paid for will be Stopped.
Don't Let Yours Stop.

The Price Will be the same $2.00 a Year
as heretofore,

Hopkinsville Kentuckian

THE MAN IN THE STORM

By OLIVER GRAY.

"Janet, dear, won't you please come to the hotel with us and stay all night? We've played out so late at shows and things we can't let you go so far alone now."

"No, Sally, thanks just the same. I'll take the subway and be home in no time. I live so near to the car, you know."

"It isn't near—it's several blocks and you shan't go alone. Henry will certainly go with you."

"Henry certainly will not. You two are so tired doing New York now you walk as if you were on pegs, and Henry's eyes look like holes burned in paper for want of sleep. We girls get accustomed to going around alone, and you needn't think I'm a martyr."

"Well, little sister, all right," acquiesced Sally. "You are too independent for comfort, though, sometimes. This musical career in the first place is all—"

Janet laid her hand over her sister's mouth. "Hush! Here we are at the station. Now good-night."

She had been just long enough in the metropolis to get over the wonder of it, then over the disgust of it, for there is always reaction, and to take the philosophical view that is best. Her music and little else really interested her. She had her wagon hitched to the star of a musical career and she was willing to work and sacrifice everything for its sake.

Hartley Howard had insisted that his love for her counted for more than music, and it had been a long, hard fight to convince herself that he was wrong. She had asked her sister about him, that night so indifferently that even Sally's sharp eyes were deceived.

"He's doing pretty well, Janet," she had answered. "They say he's going with Mary Porter, but I don't know for sure. Think how funny it will be some day, sister, when you're away up in grand opera and just home from the courts of Europe to have Hartley present you to Mary, fat and forty, and with a family of six to cook and sew for." She had meant it kindly, for she thought Janet was looking a bit white and peaked, but her words had brought no answering smile.

"It seems a good piece ahead," sighed Janet. She thought it all over now in the car and she was very close to the line which separates will from weakness. Was she getting homesick? Then she thought of the European courts and of darning stockings and cooking. The brave color came back to her cheeks and she sat very erect. She had chosen a career and she was going to make good.

The train stopped at her station and she got off. Others got off other cars and went up the steps of the subway exit to scatter at the top in different directions. A fine sleet had started to fall and the wind which was blowing a gale sent the fine, icy particles into her eyes. She turned up her fur collar, tightened her veil, and burrowing her face into her muff, started up the street.

At the same time a man started after her. At first Janet paid little attention to him, but as she left the lights behind and plunged into the darkness ahead she felt uneasy. She walked faster but the man soon overtook her, walking beside her and suiting his step to hers. Janet kept straight ahead, never so much as glancing aside. But she knew that he, too, had his head down against the wind and the collar of his great overcoat was almost touching his hat.

"If you're afraid I shall be glad to take you home," he said finally, his voice coming in fitful jerks as the wind caught it.

"No, thank you! I'm not afraid," said Janet as firmly as she could with her teeth chattering.

"But I'm going to the ferry and I'll just walk with you, if you don't mind."

No answer, but he was not discouraged. He kept right beside her.

"I'm not accustomed to being out so late!" She decided it was best to let him know that she was a proper, law-abiding person. "I was with some friends from the West and wouldn't let them bring me home." She thought he would go then, but he didn't.

"I'm from the West, too," he said. "This isn't very far West," she amended. "It's only in western Pennsylvania."

"Why, that's where I'm from!" "Is that so?" Janet was interested.

"What is the place?" "Not far from Pittsburg. A town called Lockton."

"Why, that—whom do you know in Lockton?"

"Oh, everybody. Do you know anyone there?"

"Yes."

"Do you know the Moores?" he asked eagerly. "Do you know Janet Moore?"

Janet caught his sleeve and turned him sharply. "Hart!" she cried. "Don't you know me?"

"Janet!"

And suddenly European courts and darning were forgotten. He hadn't asked her if she knew Mary Porter, he still loved her and she had no ill to resent.

"I'm going home, Hart!" she said in the shelter of the entrance where they could talk.

"Why, Janet?"

"Oh, to marry you, I guess. Don't you want me?"

But the last words were lost in the depths of the big overcoat.

"Kie-Yie-Yie! Get Me 'Gels-It' Quick!"

2 Drops Make Corn "Fall" Off!

"I've joined the Never-Again Club. Never again will I use anything for corns but 'Gels-It'! I put 2 drops of 'Gels-It' on, and from that second the corn begins to shrivel."

"Oh, Don't Touch It! It's So Sore!" Use "Gels-It" and It Will Never Be Sore!

Instead of swelling up like a little white sponge. Then it loosens from your toe—and, glory hallelujah! the corn comes off as though you'd take a glove off your hand! Yes, "Gels-It" is the corn discovery of the age. More "Gels-It" is sold by many times than any other corn remedy in existence. Try it and you'll know the reason why. It takes two seconds to apply it, and it dries at once. That's all. Don't experiment—follow the experience of millions and use "Gels-It."

"Gels-It" is sold everywhere. See a bottle or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Hopkinsville and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by L. L. ELGIN.

MRS. BULLARD'S FATHER DEAD

Sudden Summons Came While Aged Farmer Was Plowing His Garden.

Mr. J. L. Ramsey, father of Mrs. Jesse Bullard, of this city, died suddenly Monday at his home near Russellville, aged 80 years. Mrs. Bullard was summoned immediately and she attended the funeral which occurred Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Ramsey was plowing his garden, when he fell and expired almost instantly. The deceased was three times married and was the father of sixteen children, fourteen of whom, together with his last wife, survive. He was a lifelong member of the Baptist church.

IRA D. SMITH

Seeks Re-election as County Attorney of Christian County.

The formal announcement of Ira D. Smith as a Democratic candidate for re-election to the office of County Attorney appears today. Mr. Smith was elected in 1913 by a close vote, but so popular an officer has he made that he will have no opposition in his own party and no one in the Republican party has so far come out against him. His conduct of the office has been characterized by ability, courage and faithfulness and he deserves the endorsement that the people evidently have in mind to give him both in the primary and in the general election.

S-O-S.

Sister was reading when she came to a reference to the "northern lights." "What are northern lights, papa," she inquired of the alleged head of the household, who was sitting by the fireplace trying to figure out how to beat the high cost of living. Papa executed a swift mental return to his physical geography days in school, and began a somewhat labored explanation of the phenomena of the aurora borealis. He almost believed that he was getting away with it, when Little Brother chirped in: "Papa, do they have southern lights, too?" Whereupon papa said he had to go and fix the furnace.

Petrified Bird's Nest.

Petrified bird's eggs have been found on several occasions, but as far as can be ascertained, it remained for a Washington state man to find both a group of petrified eggs and the petrified nest in which the eggs were originally laid. The nest was imbedded in a rock formation in a cliff of the Grand Canyon, 500 feet above the base, says the Popular Science Monthly. It must have been the nest of some bird about the size of a robin, and only one side of it—what is now the darker side—must have been exposed to the air. It is impossible to estimate how long ago the eggs were laid.

CHINESE FARMS ARE SMALL

Most of Them Are Hardly More Than Gardens and Cultivation Is of Most Intensive Sort.

It is incorrect to speak of the Chinese as farmers in the strict sense of the word, for they are gardeners rather than farmers. A so-called Chinese farm is no larger than what in America would be called a good-sized garden, and the methods of cultivation are of the most intensive sort.

Generally speaking, it seems that the greater the prosperity of the agricultural family the larger the number of children; hence in turn the greater the number of mouths to feed. In addition, prosperous conditions always bring with them greater expenses incident to family festivities, such as weddings, which stand out as all-important considerations in the lives of the Chinese.

In Manchuria the conditions are somewhat different, for there are vast stretches of land open to cultivation on a much larger scale than in China proper. These tracts are generally worked by hired farmers, who come in hundreds of thousands from the more densely populated sections of China to spend the short farming season in northern portions, returning again when the cold weather makes further labor in the fields impossible.

STUNG

Lord De Swift with a mild expletive said: "That cow is a fraud, as I live; Neither buttermilk, cream, Nor aught else, it would seem, But plain milk does the animal give."

THE TELEPHONE.

The telephone is the back yard fence of the present generation. Much that was once used for back yard fence discussion is now saved for over the phone and back yard fences are getting to be considered very middle-class. A telephone is a valuable means of getting into closer touch with your fellow creatures. A party line is especially good for such a purpose. Get on a party line and you can always know what your neighbors are going to have for supper. Sometimes you can tell they are going to have a party or a divorce. The pleasure of talking on a party line is the knowledge that one of the other parties is always listening. In talking over a party line one should always pass a remark for the benefit of the eaves-dropper. Say, "There's some sneak listening to us." That always stings. You know how it is yourself.—Detroit Journal.

SOUNDS QUEER.

Father—Now, my boy, what I am going to do hurts me as badly as it does you.

Offspring—Then why is it I have to do all the cryin'?

AT THE OTHER END.

"That fellow is like a tack."

"Sharp, eh?"

"No; got a blunt head."

DISBELIEF.

"The people in our establishment are crazy about me."

"Why, are you employed in an insane asylum?"

THE IDEA.

"I know a fellow who on a bet ate an 11-pound turkey with trimmings." "Ah! a man of consuming ambition."

MORE TALK.

"So Kate and Alice are not on speaking terms?" "No, but they more than make up for it by what they say about each other."

Clean Up NEXT WEEK.

Wagons Will Haul off Refuse Free of Charge. Schedule For Town Arranged.

The Sanitary department of the City and the Civic League have united in calling a general CLEAN-UP campaign for next week.

All citizens are urged to have their places cleaned and the garbage ready to be removed. The city wagons will visit the sections specified on the days named in the following schedule, so the cleaning must be done in advance of that time.

- Section 1. West Side. All property West of Little river will be visited on Tuesday, May 1, 1917
- Section 2. South of 7th street and West of L. & N. Railroad, on Wednesday, May 2, 1917.
- Section 3. South of 7th street and East of L. & N. Railroad, on Thursday, May 3, 1917.
- Section 4. North of 7th street and West of L. & N. Railroad, on Friday, May 4, 1917.
- Section 5. North of 7th street, east of L. & N. Railroad, on Saturday, May 5, 1917.

NOTICE. All garbage MUST BE PLACED ON THE STREET OR ALLEY where wagons can get it. Otherwise YOU will be forced to remove same at YOUR EXPENSE.

MILLIONS OF EGGS Held Up On Railroad Tracks By Speculators, Food Prober Says.

Chicago, April 24.—About 200 carloads of eggs, approximately 36,000,000, are on railroad tracks in Chicago to-day and they are being held by speculators, according to Herbert A. Emerson, who is on his way to his home in New York from the Pacific coast, where he investigated food conditions for John J. Dillon, Commissioner of the State of New York. Mr. Emerson said that the Pacific coast States this year, instead of importing eggs, as they have done usually, will have a surplus of 75,000 to 100,000 cases. This will release the supply from the Northern and Middle Western States, which has been going to the coast in past years and will turn that supply towards the East. Mr. Emerson said he had no evidence of an "egg trust," but said he is sure there is a "mighty close understanding" among the big dealers. "The butter situation is a parallel," he said. "The Pacific coast this year will be able to ship East a surplus of 150 cars of butter, 24,000 pounds to the car. Four years ago the coast imported 200 cars. He said Chicago is now paying higher prices for eggs and some other foods than London and Liverpool.

Leap Year.

By the present method of reckoning time every year of which the number is divisible by four without a remainder is leap year, excepting the centennial, or even hundredth years, which are only leap years when divisible by four after suppressing the two ciphers. The year 1000 was a leap year, the years 1700, 1800 and 1900 were not leap years, but the year 2000 will be and every intervening year that is exactly divisible by four. From 1700 to 1800 and from 1800 to 1900 were eight-year intervals without a leap year.

YOUNG STUDENT KILLED

Milton Holton, of Blaine, Is Victim of Train At Louisa.

Louisa, Ky., April 25.—Milton Holton, 20 years old, of Blaine, Ky., one of the brightest students at the college here, was killed by a freight train. He was walking with some girls and stepped over near the rapidly moving train while pretending that he would take a ride. A projecting rod caught his clothing and threw him under the wheels.

ATHLETICS TOMORROW

Fine List of Events Arranged For on Wilgus Ath- letic Field.

Friday will be the greatest day in an athletic way, that Hopkinsville has seen in a long time. On the Wilgus athletic field, back of the high school, will be held the long talked of track meet. There will be a fifty and a hundred yard dash, a quarter mile and a half mile relay race. The high and broad jumping records will be in danger, as will be the throwing and fungo hitting records. Each class will do all in its power to secure the trophies offered to the winners.

After the meet, there will be a big baseball game between the Alumni and High School teams. The Alumni won the basketball game played during the winter, but High School says that the Alumni have not got a chance in baseball. Everybody come out and see who will prove to be the better prophet.

DOGWOOD NOTES.

As I have not seen anything from this place for some time, I will try to write a few lines.

The farmers are all very busy plowing this pretty weather. Some have begun planting corn.

Mr. Joe Fruit has about two acres of corn planted.

Mr. Henry Fruit is very ill at this writing.

Rev. Henry Moore filled his regular appointment at the Christian church last Sunday.

Whooping cough is all you can hear in this neighborhood. There's hardly a family that has not from two to five coughing at the same time.

Mrs. Delia Rogers, wife of Virgil Rogers, died last Wednesday night with pneumonia following measles. There are several more of the family in bed at this writing.

Mr. Coy West had the misfortune to lose his family mare last week.

Owing to the whooping cough, the Sunday school at this place has been postponed until the fourth Sunday in April.

Mr. Joe White and family spent last Sunday with Mr. Rodman Duval and family.

Mr. George Fruit and wife spent Sunday with his mother and brother's family, Joe Fruit. W. X. Y. Z.

King Of "Newsboys."

"Keystone" Sam Cole, claiming to be king of the newsboys, passed through town Tuesday en route from Paducah to Guthrie, on a trans-continental trip from Maine to California. He is 26 years old and has a stentorian voice, which he has used in selling papers in many countries of Europe and all over the United States. He travels much of the time on foot but is not averse to riding on trains.

The Courier Journal says $1,000,000 worth of scraps from the tables of Louisville is wasted in the garbage cans. Why not raise a few chickens in the back yards, where there is room, and turn the waste into eggs? The garbage itself ought to ultimately reach somebody's hog pen and not be a total loss.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

MOTHER ONCE WAS AFRAID TO GO TO BED

Spasmodic Croup Often Kept
Mrs. Shepard Awake
All Night.

LITTLE MISS
KATHRYN E. SHEPARD
DANVILLE, PENNA.

No one but a mother knows the terrors of croup. In the hope that other mothers will find the same relief she experienced, Mrs. Benj. Shepard, 27 Spruce St., Danville, Pa., writes—

"I have used your Vick's VapoRub Salve, and would not be without it in my house. I have tried it for spasmodic croup and it acted like a charm. My little girl breathed easier in about ten minutes after I rubbed her throat and chest with VapoRub, and she went to sleep and never woke until morning. Other times I used to have to sit up all night with her, afraid to let her go to bed. So I will gladly recommend it to any mothers for croup."

You just apply Vick's VapoRub Salve over throat and chest, covering with a warm flannel cloth. The body heat releases antiseptic vapors that are inhaled with each breath, loosening the phlegm. A real "bodyguard in the home" against all cold troubles. Three sizes, 25c, and up. At all druggists.

Keep a little Vick's VapoRub in your home.

VICK'S VAPORUB SALVE

JUDGE CHAS. H. BUSH.

Circuit Judge Chas. H. Bush of the Third judicial district was a pleasant caller in our city today.

He was here to wind up some unfinished business in the way of signing orders, etc., after he was special judge here for a short time some time ago.

The judge has many friends here who are always glad to meet him and shake his friendly hand.

It is understood among the legal profession in this end of the state that he is a very fine lawyer, and as circuit judge is giving almost universal satisfaction, because of the manner in which he is conducting the courts.

He is cleaning up the dockets in his district as has never been done before and it is one of the great purposes of his serving the people to keep the dockets as clear as possible and the state at as small expense as possible, and to this end he proposes during his term of the court to give to the people strictly a business circuit judge.

The trouble that came up in his court at Murray will adjust itself in due time, to the honor and credit of himself.

He believes absolutely in upholding the law and that the country should be kept as free as possible from a splint of mob law and to this end he hopes that there will be no more trouble in any of the counties in his judicial district.

He is about sixty years of age, and at an age to make an able, conscientious and careful judge and the people of the Third judicial district can congratulate themselves upon having him as their circuit judge.

The time has come when the people expect more universal service from a circuit judge than in the past, and this Judge Bush proposes to do.

This end of the state is noted for its progressive and business-like circuit judges, and Judge Bush is one of these. —Mayfield Messenger.

FRENCHMEN ALSO ARRIVE

Gen. Joffre and Party Now in United States.

The French commission, including Marshal Joffre and former Premier Viviani, arrived at an unnamed American port early Tuesday on a speedy French steamship which conveyed them across the Atlantic. The vessel was met off the coast by United States destroyers. The distinguished commission was welcomed with salutes. Naval and military attaches and a representative of the State Department greeted them. The French mission means extension to the United States of the practice of the allied governments of conferences in first one country and then another. The result has been unity and coordination among the members.

Great Britain's commissioners met Tuesday in the American capital, receiving every mark of honor and courtesy within the gift of the government. Minister Balfour, formally presented to President Wilson in the morning, was the guest of honor at night at the most notable dinner given at the White House in a generation.

PURELY PERSONAL

Mrs. J. M. Bullard was called to Russellville Tuesday by the sudden death of her father, Mr. Ramsey.

Mrs. Lawson B. Flack left for Eddyville Tuesday morning.

Mrs. James West was called to Princeton Tuesday by the serious illness of her brother's child.

Prof. G. C. Koffman and Miss Julia Arnold, of the High School faculty, are attending the K. E. A. meeting at Louisville.

Judge C. H. Bush has returned from court at Murray and will have a week's rest before his court begins at Eddyville Monday.

Dr. D. H. Erkiletian will accompany one of his patients to Nashville this morning, where the latter will undergo an operation.

Harry L. Lebkucher and V. M. Williamson are spending the week fishing near Jones' old mill, on Little river, not far from Pee Dee.

FIFE REVIVAL

The Seven Deadly Plagues Of Hopkinsville Is Theme Of Great Sermon.

On Monday night the Fife Brothers went down to Pembroke to hold a meeting to aid the Prohibition cause in that city. A large crowd from this city accompanied them. A great meeting was held with a big crowd on hand.

Tuesday night at the tabernacle Mr. Fife preached on the "Seven Deadly Plagues of Hopkinsville," and preached a powerful sermon. One feature of the evangelists' preaching is his straight-forward manner of saying things. He calls things what they are, and hits the evil in everybody's heart. But the people of Hopkinsville love the truth even when it hits them and great crowds fill the tabernacle to its capacity every night.

Another feature of the meeting is the singing of the great chorus under the able leadership of Mr. Earl Fife. The colored folks are taking great interest in the meeting and Tuesday night gave several old time religious songs which deeply moved the people.

Last night at the Christian Church, a banquet was served to the men and "get together" talks were made.

The program for the next two days is as follows:

PROGRAM.

Thursday: 3:15 p. m., Girls' meeting, conducted by Mrs. Earl H. Fife, at Tabernacle.

7:30 p. m., Sermon, "The American Home." Student Night.

Friday: 10:00 to 10:20 a. m., Men's Meeting at Waller & Trice's store.

3:00 p. m., Prayer and Worker's Service at Tabernacle.

7:30 p. m., Sermon by Evangelist Fife, "Ye are My Witnesses."

Would Carry Mail in Airplanes.

Aircraft as mail carriers was the suggestion made in a paper read before the Institute of Engineers and Shipbuilders, Glasgow. It was pointed out that in the first place the speed of aircraft was much greater than that of surface vessels. The considerable difference in the speed of aircraft and of watercraft would bring about a greatly increased exchange of correspondence between distant countries than was now possible, and this accelerated rate of exchange of correspondence would react upon the commerce between such countries, and consequently upon their shipping. In the light of such reasoning it was apparent that the commerce and shipping of a country must profit considerably by the advent of aircraft.

What's In a Name?

Back in the Hindenburg line the Prussians have been constructing a new series of trenches, which they have named after mythological German personages. Thus they have the "Siegfried line," the "Wotan line" and others. These names are peculiarly appropriate. Wotan, who is named the "Wanderer" in Wagner's drama, would typify the change from place to place of the Prussian lines. Siegfried, who kills the dragon Fafner and steals the Niebelung's Ring, is finally slain for his treachery, both characteristics of Prussian "efficiency."

Musical Instrument of Reeds.

The Laos of northern Siam have an interesting reed instrument, which is made up with 14 bamboo or hollow reed pipes symmetrically arranged with a small air chamber and mouthpiece of turned wood or ivory. The tone of this instrument is described as peculiarly sweet and chords may be produced upon it.

FARM STOCK

GRINDING FEED FOR HORSES

Improbable That It Pays Except Where Animals Are at Hard Work or Have Poor Teeth.

Answering the query as to whether it pays to grind oats or corn for horses, and which would give best results, Prof. B. E. Carmichael of the Ohio experiment station makes the following reply:

"It is improbable that grinding either corn or oats for horses will pay excepting in cases where the horses are at very hard work or have poor teeth. Even in instances of this kind it is not at all certain that profit will always result from this rather expensive operation. Soaking corn that is exceedingly dry and hard is advisable. As a general thing it seems that it is safe to regard our corn and oats, both of good quality, approximately equal in feeding value per pound for horses.

"If there is a tendency to swallow the feed without thoroughly chewing, it would be worth while to devise a method of feeding that would render it impossible for the feed to be eaten so rapidly. Mixing a small amount of bran or chaffed hay with the grain might be of assistance, or the same result might be accomplished by putting large pebbles in the feed box. It is well to determine whether the teeth are in good condition, whenever there is evidence that the feed is poorly masticated.

WIND-PROOF STOCK SHELTER

It Should Be Made Strong Enough to Withstand Any Wind—Set End Posts in Cement.

In constructing a stock shelter in an open field particular care should be taken to make it substantial enough to withstand any wind short of a tornado. A little foresight in this regard may save the loss of valuable animals at some later time. To this end the posts should be firmly set, preferably in cement, and the upper framework should be snugly bolted or spiked together.

If the three inclosed sides are composed of loose boards, set on end at an angle of 45 degrees and banked in place with straw, about the worst a heavy wind could accomplish would be to "blow out" the sides. Little damage to stock would be likely to occur in such an event.

A shelter of this kind, with its top as well as its sides heavily straw-covered will for all practical purposes be as permanent as though its sides had been nailed firmly in place. With its open side toward the south it will prove weather-proof, warm and quite adaptable to creature comfort.

FEEDING SALT AND CHARCOAL

Needed Mineral Matter Is Supplied by This Practice—Self-Feeder Prevents Waste.

Salt and charcoal should be provided to furnish hogs with mineral matter, according to Ray Gatewood, instructor in animal husbandry in the Kansas State Agricultural college.

"Salt should be available at all times, preferably in an open shed where it can be protected from the weather," said Mr. Gatewood. "Charcoal is best fed from the hopper or self-feeder, so as to prevent waste.

"It is a common practice to burn coals until the cob is well charred, and then the fire is smothered and the hogs are given access to this. Some people char their coals in a pit, and when the fire has gained good headway, the top of the pit is covered with a piece of sheet metal, and then covered with dirt to keep out the air. The charcoal can then be used as it is needed. It is advisable to add salt to the charcoal as it makes it more palatable, and is also especially good for the hogs."

MURDER PROFITS IN PIG PEN

Success Assured Only When Animals Are Comfortable and Have Liberal Supply of Feed.

A happy hog is a help to humanity, but a pessimistic porcine is the epitome of despair. Melancholia murders profits in the pig pen and leeches are cold comforters.

Pigs and prosperity are synonyms only when the pigs have congenial temperaments, contented countenances, warm dry quarters and plenty of exercise, including exercise of the mandibular muscles and the alimentary canal.

Fill them up and watch them laugh; don't feed 'em on second-hand corn cobs and barbed wire shavings or they'll get mad and leave without paying their board.

LIKE CREMATION OF M'GEE

Grim Story of Plight of an Arctic Dweller Recalls Robert W. Service's Poem.

Robert W. Service's story of the man who lived for months with the body of Sam McGee in the frozen north, bound by a promise to cremate him, was brought to mind recently by Constable Barbour of the Lille la Crosse detachment of the Royal Northwest mounted police, writes a Prince Albert (Sask.) correspondent to the Minneapolis Journal.

Barbour, who is just in from his post, tells a story of a lonely trapper in the far North, Sigvald Nilson, whose only companion since October 26 had been the body of Ole Heiberg, his partner. His shack was at Island lake, 150 miles north of the police district, and far from any human habitation.

The trapper's partner died of pneumonia. Nilson feared he would be accused of murder, so he kept the body until a member of the mounted police could come. Constable Barbour reached the shack December 18. His examination showed the man died naturally, and he gave permission to inter the frozen body.

Then the problem of burial was faced. There were no tools with which to break the rock-hard soil until the spring thaw. The temperature was 40 degrees below zero, and besides the constable's supplies would not allow him to stay long. He told Nilson to make a great pile of wood and keep it burning until the ground thawed, then to dig a grave and mark the spot with a cross, according to the custom of the wilderness.

HOW MUCH ARE YOU WORTH?

Salary of $20 a Week Is Same as Income at 5 Per Cent on an Investment of $20,000.

What are you worth? Have you any idea? Did you ever capitalize your wages and figure it out? This is the way to ascertain how much your labor is really worth.

For instance, a man who has saved $20,000 and invested it at 5 per cent, receives an annual income of $1,000 a year, or about $20 a week.

The clerk in the office or the workman in the factory who gets $20 a week, therefore, receives the income at 5 per cent on an investment of $20,000.

He is a $20,000 man, that is, he is getting as much, week by week, as the man with $20,000 who depends solely upon the income from his investments and who does not work for a living.

The man who earns $40 a week has about the same income as the investor with $40,000 put out at interest at 5 per cent.

So labor is capital. It has a market value. It can be called a commodity because it can be sold by its owner the same as any other possession he may have.

These are simple facts. The demagogue who preaches unreason and unrest and who sows the seeds of discontent and unhappiness among the working masses of the country should now and then be reminded of them.

What is he worth to you?—John A. Schleicher, in Leslie's.

Mid-Summer Millinery Opening, Thursday, April 26

From the more tailored and severe hats of the early season, Millinery now turns its attention to a softer note in the dress hats that will be worn from now on during the summer season. We have just returned from Chicago, where we attended Fisk's summer opening and purchased the most beautiful collection of pattern hats, most exclusive models that were shown on that day for the first time.

The hats are larger in shape, softer in trimming and more airy in appearance, drooping Leghorns with ostrich trim, Hair Braids and the New Milans in Black and White combinations---IN FACT EVERYTHING THAT IS NEW IN HIGH-CLASS MILLINERY.

Menace of Dust.

Dust is one of the great enemies of industrial workers. It destroys the power of the body to fight disease by clogging up the human machinery. It carries germs of disease into the system and gives them a breeding place to poison the worker until he is not fit to carry on his task. This means a small pay envelope. It often means the loss of a job entirely.

CHAUTAUQUA THIS SUMMER

Lincoln System, Which Furnishes Attractions, Is The Oldest In America.

Myron E. Weisenberger, representing the Lincoln Chautauqua of Atlanta, Ga., has been in the city the past week arranging with citizens to provide a chautauqua assembly for Hopkinsville this summer. The Lincoln System, is the oldest circuit system in America, this being its 12th season. It is also the largest, operating this year in 18 states and providing chautauqua for hundreds of cities and towns. The program it presents this year is an exceptionally strong and brilliant one. It will include:

The Bland-Hippe Orchestra, under the direction of the world famous xylophone player, Earl Hippe.

Ralph Parlette, brilliant lecturer and humorist.

Nierras Royal Hawaiian Players and Singers.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gale in a costume-lecture on the Indian.

Harold Morton Kramer, soldier, author, philosopher and lecturer.

The Schoder Quintet, musical company.

Dr. Robert Perry Shepherd, constructive community expert.

The original Chicago Male Quartet.

Maude Willis, dramatic interpreter of note and reader of great plays.

Vice President Thomas R. Marshall.

The famous Brooks Concert Band with E. L. Eaton scientific and popular lecturer.

The Emerson Winters Company entertainers.

Mrs. A. C. Zehner and her great lecture, "American Opera Quartet and Dr. Lincoln McConnell, inimitable and brilliant Southern speaker.

Outstanding feature of the Lincoln chautauqua this year will be the great patriotic Children's pageant. From 75 to 125 children will be trained through the week by the chautauqua supervisor, with furnished costumes, for the pageant to be given on the sixth day, at which time a special pageant director will come and assume charge. The junior chautauqua will be conducted each morning also by the supervisor which will include playground work, story hour, round table conferences and kindred things in the interest of the welfare of child life.

The season tickets will sell for $2.

CHAP. HAWKINS

Took Part In The Services At Dr. Thompson's Church Sunday.

Rev. South Hawkins, Chaplain of the Third Regiment, a son of Eld. J. T. Hawkins, of the Christian church, attended the First Baptist church Sunday morning and occupied a seat on the stand, and made an opening and closing prayers.

Dr. Thompson preached a special sermon to the young people. Mr. Hawkins was in his uniform and the music consisted of military hymns.

NEGROES SHOOT GUARDSMEN

Two Soldiers and One Civilian Wounded in Shooting Scrap at Murray.

Murray, Ky., April 25.—A shooting affray which occasioned considerable excitement took place at 9 o'clock Sunday night, when two members of Company L, Corporal Ray and private Crick, and George Albritton, a civilian, were wounded. The shots are supposed to have been fired by three negroes, Galen Grogan, proprietor of a grocery; Luvene Gilbert and Isaac Walls. Grogan and Walls are under arrest, Gilbert having escaped.

The affair took place in front of Grogan's grocery. Corporal Ray was shot twice in the leg, private Crick in the neck and Albritton in the leg. Dr. Hart was called at once and they were taken to the Murray surgical hospital, where Drs. Mason and Hart dressed the wounds. Albritton was taken to his home. All are reported to be resting well today.

The members of Company L were much incensed at the attack on their comrades, and for a while it looked like war, but Capt. Clark held his men in check. The company had expected to leave for Lexington on Tuesday, but owing to this affair has been detained.

ALLEGED LEADERS OF MOB ARE INDICTED

Five Are Accused of Threatening the Life of Judge Bush.

Paducah, Ky., April 25.—The grand jury in the Calloway Circuit Court at Murray today indicted five men, alleged members of a mob that threatened the life of Circuit Judge C. H. Bush last January, on the charge of contempt of court. All of the accused, except one, who is a dry goods clerk, are farmers. Their arrest is expected to be made tomorrow.

A large number of witnesses, including Judge Bush and Commonwealth's Attorney Denny P. Smith, gave evidence to the grand jury. The cases stand for trial at the August term. Because he is a Commonwealth witness Judge Bush will not preside at the trials.

The Men Indicted.

Sam Byrd, Will Starks, Edwin Bourland, Burnett Waterfield and Dick Vance were indicted at Murray. Each is charged with contempt of court during the Murray mob and bail fixed at $500 each. Bourland and Waterfield have made bail. Byrd is a candidate for county jailer and Bourland is a nephew of Guthrie Duguid, who was slain by Lube Martin, a negro.

Too Tough.

Frank Harris, editor of a monthly magazine, was held in $300 bail in New York, charged with publishing obscene literature.

A TOTAL OF 1620 DOZEN

Egg Circle Shipped 210 Dozen Eggs Last Tuesday.

The Egg Circle made another shipment of eggs Tuesday of 7 cases, bringing the total number of cases shipped up to 54, of 30 dozen each. The price of the last shipments has increased to 35 cents. Hereafter shipments will be made in the forenoon instead of the afternoons of every Tuesday.

HEN CHAMPIONS LAY

TWO MORE EGGS

Eggs were scored by Lady Walnut Hill and R. I. Red, 927, today. Both laid shortly after 8 o'clock. This was the tenth consecutive laying day for the champion and the fifty-fifth for the Rhode Islander. Each pullet continues in perfect form. The Leghorn, which has laid 104 eggs in 105 days, doesn't appear to know what exhaustion means, and the Red seems to have wholly forgotten that this is the setting season for heavy birds—the Lent of her tribe.

Six years ago, when a Faverolle pullet from Maryland laid 64 consecutive egg days, at Storrs, Conn., it was marked up as a world record. If 827 lays ten more eggs without a break she will be over what today is regarded as the scratch. Then she can start out to beat Lady Show You's 82, and after that Lady Walnut Hill's 94. She will be eligible to have her picture in the paper the day she passes 64, and moving pictures and grasshopper cakes are honors further along the way.

Lady Walnut Hill's picture has been sent to Tom Barron, founder of her strain, at Catforth, Eng., and Referee Milligan is expecting an acknowledgment soon.

A new high average was hung up in the national contest Wednesday, when the 150 pullets engaged laid 134 eggs. This is testimony to the efficacy of proper feeding and handling and proof again that blood will tell. However, maybe Kentucky needs to learn not so much that a thoroughbred can lay over three hundred eggs a year, as that her many scrubs average around fifty eggs in 385 days.—Lexington Leader, April 20.

BISHOP WOODCOCK

Preached a Patriotic Sermon at Grace Church Sunday Night.

Bishop Woodcock preached at the Episcopal church Sunday and at night his discourse was a thrilling appeal to patriotism in a call to get on "the right side." He paid a glowing tribute to the patriotically Solid South, "where people to a man were behind the President, and congratulated himself that he lived in a Southern city. At the conclusion of his sermon five were confirmed.

JUMPED TO DEATH.

Robert McIntosh, a convict from Breathitt county, serving a life term for the murder of his father, jumped from the top tier of cells in the reformatory at Frankfort to the corner floor, injuring himself so badly that he died a short time later. He was conscious before he died and said he accidentally fell, but a guard saw the man just before the drop and that he deliberately jumped, indicating that his act was with suicidal intent.

Dealing With Troubles.

We shrink instinctively from troubles as we shrink from hard and painful tasks; we cannot escape the suffering they bring; but we decide whether they shall weaken or strengthen us. It lies with us to receive them as enemies or as friends. They offer us fortitude, patience, courage, strength, growth or cowardice, bitterness, despair; we cannot prevent them from coming to us, but we can decide whether they shall help or hinder us in our life purposes.
